Message from the Music Director

Dear Friends and Fellow Music-Lovers,

As the new Music Director and Conductor of Symphony Viva, it is my distinct honor to welcome you to Viva's fifth season of music-making! To match this milestone, the 2020-2021 season will offer five exciting performances that we hope will inspire and move you during this challenging moment in history.

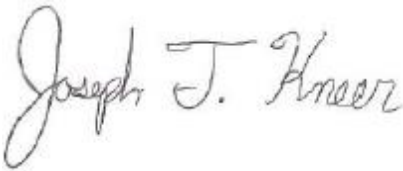

Symphony Viva is proud to present three outdoor orchestral concerts full of beautiful and varied repertoire, inspiring soloists, and thought-provoking themes. From the intimate setting of our first concert "Elements", which brings the listener into the sound worlds of each section of the orchestra (the strings, woodwinds, brass, and percussion), to the grandeur of our June 2021 performance "Viva Extravaganza", which presents Mozart's elegant and sunny Oboe Concerto alongside Respighi's hair-raising tone poem Pines of Rome, I hope there will be moments that engage, inspire, and move you, no matter your previous musical experience.

Viva's yearly collaboration with the wonderful Alamo City Dance Company brings two masterpieces to the stage this season. An exciting virtual production of the Nutcracker will be released in December, and Camille Saint-Saëns Carnival of the Animals will take flight at the San Antonio Zoo in May 2021.

As we navigate the Covid-19 pandemic and plan ways to keep our audience, musicians, and staff safe, multiple health safety measures will be employed to mitigate the risk of infection throughout our season. With this in mind, a limited number of tickets will be available for in-person, socially-distanced seating at each performance, and a ticketed online video production of the concert will be released shortly thereafter. Please check our website (<http://www.AlamoCityArts.org>) for tickets and more information regarding these protocols.

Whether you will be joining us in-person at our outdoor performance series beginning at the Botanical Gardens in November or virtually for our annual Nutcracker collaboration and other live-recorded performance offerings online, please know that you are a crucial and valued part of our music-making process. The immersive and inspiring experience of sharing and listening to great musical works is needed now more than ever, especially as the ways in which we interact continue to evolve and change. Thank you as always for your support of the incredible work of these musicians, our ballet partners, and the Alamo City Performing Arts Association. On behalf of the Executive Board of the ACPAA, the Alamo City Dance Company, and the musicians of Symphony Viva, I wish you a safe and hopeful season, and I look forward to seeing you at our concerts and ballet productions in the months ahead!

All best wishes,

Joseph T. Kneer

The Alamo City Performing Arts, Alamo City Dance Company, and Symphony Viva would like to invite you to become a part of our family by supporting the arts through your tax-deductible donations. We are a tax-exempt 501(c) (3) organization. With your previous support we have been able to embark on many new endeavors and projects, including new works of art by guest choreographers, securing and utilizing new video and audio equipment, outreach programs, and now the integration of Symphony Viva into the Alamo City Performing Arts family. Please consider becoming a sustaining member to help support the many new adventures and theatrical productions we are planning for the future. This year we have been sharing videos of each of our productions to hospitals, front line workers and other nonprofits so they can enjoy the arts during this challenging time of social distancing. If you aren't a member already and would like to be, or if you would like to join our family as a volunteer please contact us at: AlamoCityArts.org

Alamo City Performing Arts would like to thank YOU, our patrons, for supporting the arts in San Antonio. We look forward to bringing many more wonderful performances and programs to you and our community in the months and years to come. Thank you for attending this performance!
